Gtr1:

D D D G A D D D G D

[Verse]

D G D
Last night as I slept I dreamed I met with Behan

I shook him by the hand and we passed the time of day
D G D
When questioned on his views on the crux of life's philosophies
D G A D
He had but these few clear and simple words to say

[Chorus]

D G A D G A
I am going, I am going, any which way the wind may be blowing
D G A D A D
I am going, I am going, where streams of whiskey are flowing

[Verse]

D G D
I have cursed, bled and sworn, Jumped bail and landed up in jail
G A
Life has often tried to stretch me, but the rope always was slack
D G D
And now that I've a pile, I'll go down to the RODNEY
D G A D
I'll walk in on my feet, but I'll leave there on my back

[Chorus]

D G A D G A
I am going, I am going, any which way the wind may be blowing
D G A D A D
I am going, I am going, where streams of whiskey are flowing

[Verse]

D G D
 Oh the words that he spoke, seemed the wisest of philosophies
G A
 There's nothing ever gained by a wet thing called a tear

 When the world is too dark and I need the light inside of me
D G A D
 I'll walk into a bar and drink fifteen pints of beer

 I am going, I am going, any which way the wind may be blowing
D G A D A D

 where streams of whiskey are flowing

 where streams of whiskey are flowing
